

Queen Creek Middle School Student Appearance

Wearing neat, clean clothes helps children feel good about coming to school to learn. Clothing that distorts the student's identity or disrupts the learning process will not be allowed. When in doubt, parents and students should select more conservative clothing.

- T-shirts displaying alcohol, tobacco, drugs, weapons, violence, or any sexual connotations are not appropriate.
- Any attire deemed to be gang related or affiliated with a negative group is not allowed.
- See through, spaghetti straps, bare-midriff shirts, or clothing which is backless or razor back shirts are not suitable for school wear.
- Short-shorts, ripped or torn jeans or sagging pants are unfit for school.
- Any attire, but not limited to, exposing chest or buttocks should not be worn.
- No Tank tops with shoulder widths less than 2 inches.
- Hats, of any kind, will not be worn in the buildings.
- Flip - flops are allowed, however students will be expected to wear them on their feet at all times. Tennis shoes are a "MUST" on PE days for safety reasons.
- Students may be given a change of clothing in the health office when needed.
- When necessary, parents will be contacted for a change of clothing and for repeat offenses.
